"Year of Witnessing" [Mark 5:34]

Presbyter's Desk

Dearly Beloved, greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

“Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit” [Matthew: 28:19]

Dear all Greetings in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ

This passage [28:16-20] is called the Great Commission. It is the final instructive word from Jesus to His church. Jesus wants you to finish what He began. He came to the disciples, taught them, and worked with them. He then died on the cross and rose from the dead. But, before He ascended into heaven, He gave them, and us, the commission to change the world. We know that the resurrection of Jesus from death is the fundamental and foundation of our hope and faith in our Christian life. Really it is a life-changing experience that gives new direction to our very existence. In this particular text we can see the Command of Jesus Christ to his disciples. That is the Evangelization of the world.

The Great Commission is one of the most important significant passages in the Holy Bible. In Christian tradition it is one of the most important instructions of resurrected Jesus Christ to His Disciples. Jesus gave to them this as real mission. They took this as a mandate or a command. They spread his teachings to all over the world. The Great Commission is the end of a Gospel and the beginning of faith in action for all Christians.

Reading Matthew in the light of 28:16-20 leads one to reflect on the nature of disciple making. Mission is an ecclesiological event; the Christological power is now handed over to the disciples “to make disciples”. This was their primary task - disciple making. Everything else was secondary. The author mentioned what Jesus is really told to his disciple upon that mountain. That is Make disciple, baptize them and teach them in the name of Trinity. It was not an easy task to them because they were uneducated. Jesus wants you to finish what He began. He came to the disciples, taught them, and worked with them. He then died on the cross and rose from the dead. But, before He ascended into heaven, He gave them, and us, the commission to change the world. He will not ask you to do the impossible. Jesus Christ is the power of our mission his presence always with us.

God Bless you all.
